Ask the City

Do you have a question about the City of College Station?
Each month we'll check with our experts for the answers.

Q. I have cans of old paint, bug spray and cleaners that I want to get out of my garage. Should I just throw these away or is there something better that I can do with them?

A. Many people don't know how to dispose of household hazardous wastes safely or legally. Frequently, hazardous wastes are washed down drains, poured on the ground outside, or thrown in the trash, where they can pose risks to human health and the environment. The Brazos Valley Solid Waste Agency holds two collections in the spring and fall of each year. The next collection will take place October 16 at the Brazos Center (9 a.m. - 4 p.m.). Disposal is free. For a list of accepted items call 764-3809.

Q. As a senior citizen, I'd like to get involved with other seniors that share my interests. Does the city offer any recreational opportunities for seniors?

A. College Station offers seniors numerous activities from classes in computing, gardening, bridge, genealogy and more. In addition, day trips and group gatherings are planned in and around the community. There are activities that take advantage of the fine park system with its walking and bike trails. For more information, call 764-6371 or visit our website - www.cstx.gov.

*Send questions to: City of College Station Public Communications
